Farmer's Market Recipes

Fresh recipes inspired by ingredients found at the Covington Farmer's Market, by Chef Leslie "Sorelli" Guy

Pulled Coffee Roasted Pork Shoulder with Godiva Chocolate Fettucine

Collect:

- 1 pork shoulder (Justin Pitts)
- 1 bag of chocolate fettuccine (Sorelli's at the Market)
- 1/2 pound of ground coffee (Coast Roast)
- 1 pound of butter (Mauthe's Dairy)

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Mix 2 cups of the ground coffee with about 1/4 cup pink salt or regular salt together in a bowl. Rub the pork with the coffee and salt mix until you can't see any of the meat. In a skillet large enough to fit the pork shoulder, begin heating oil. Once the skillet is smoking, add the pork roast and sear it on all sides. Once the roast is seared, put it in a pan and cover with foil and cook until the internal temperature is 165 degrees. When the pork is close to being done, start to boil water for the pasta. Remove the pork from the oven and set on a separate plate. Get ready to use the juices from the pork to make a sauce. Heat a large skillet and pour the leftover juice in and get to a rolling boil for about 5 minutes. Add about 5 tablespoons of butter and let reduce another 2 minutes. Now pull some pork and add enough to the sauce we just made with the butter and pork juices. Add pasta to the boiling water for about two minutes, using a spoon to stir. Drain the pasta and add to the pork and sauce with a little salt and pepper to taste.

The Covington Farmer's Market is every Saturday from 8-12 at the 600 block of Columbia Street, and every Wednesday at the Covington Trailhead from 10 - 2, rain or shine.
