Meet The Artist At St. Tammany Homestead

Yappy Hour At Columbia Street Tap Room

Get ready for some dog-tastic fun tonight at the Tap Room! Join the St. Tammany Humane Society with your furry canine friend (dressed in your favorite team's colors, of course). With the Yappy Hour's signature "Adoptable Mutt Strut" (showcasing their adorable doggies) and a 50/50 raffle, it's "fun for dogs, and dog people."

COPA Presents: A Play About Love

The Fuhrmann Performing Arts Society and Center Of Performing Arts (COPA) present an original musical production by Robert Sturcken called "This Stage of LOVE". The play follows its cast through the experiences of taking part in a play inside of a play. When a once famous director wants to get back into the spotlight his cast learns more than they expected about theater and about themselves as well.

From the auditions to curtain call we see the excitement, trauma. drama and most of all the LOVE that being in the theater provides

This is the inaugural cast and run, and promises to be a fun ride Open auditions will take place Saturday, August 24 at 1 p.m. Those interested in auditioning should be 16 years of age or older and should come prepared to recite a brief monologue and two songs. The monologue should be light and comedic; the songs, one ballad and one up tempo, should be performed a cappella. Auditions will be held at Center Of Performing Arts, 201 N. Columbia St. in Covington.

The show runs November 1 - 3 and 8 - 10 at the Fuhrmann Auditorium in Downtown Covington. The cast of 25 will be directed by Robert Sturcken and co-directed by New Orleans theatre notables, Kellan Sigl and Ed Morvant. Ticket information will be released in the upcoming months. For more information, contact COPA at 985-727-4638.

At the Center Of Performing Arts, the goal is to provide an environment in which individuals can explore their artistic expression wherever their musical dreams may lead. Robert Sturcken, with 39 years as a professional musician and a deep love and respect for the art of music, has created Center Of Performing Arts to assure that anyone with a musical interest is afforded

Artist/Designer Peg Usner Featured Thursday August 15th

A native of Gentilly (New Orleans, LA), Peg has been painting and drawing from an early age. She received her BFA in Interior Design from Louisiana Tech University, and an MA in History from the University of New Orleans. Peg will display in the atrium for an open house meet and greet. She will show an assortment of her original paintings and photographs. Please visit the Homestead and chill out with "COOL ART in the ATRIUM." Peg's acrylic paintings and colored pencil drawings depict Louisiana wetlands and urban scenes. Her mixed media collages offer both abstract and familiar local images. Meet Peg Usner at St. Tammany Homestead on Thursday from 1 pm - 5 pm. 205 N. Columbia Street

Onyx: An August Birthstone

The name Onyx is from the Greek word for claw or fingernail, and the Latin word is spelled the same. Onyx is a banded variety of chalcedony, a cryptocrystalline form of silica minerals. The bands may alternate colors, and they run parallel to one another, different from agates. Black Onyx is one of the most famous varieties, and artificial treatments have been used since ancient times to produce the color. Much of the black onyx on the market is artificially colored, and some is actually stained agate.

Patty Pan Pasta

Ingredients:

Directions:

Ingredients:

2 cups of chopped okra 2 large creole tomatoes, diced 1/2 medium onion, diced a few toes of garlic, minced 3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice 2 tablespoons fresh or dried basil sea salt

In a medium sized pot heat a 1/2 cup of water with a dash of salt. Add the onion, garlic and basil, cover and cook for a few minutes. Stir in the okra and tomato, let this cook for a minute. Tomotoes cut down the "slime" produced by cooking the okra, but fresh squeezed lemon juice helps too. Add this to your liking, along with any additional salt.
