St. Tammany Parish Election Results Tough Races Yields Runoff for District Attorney

Dawn Amacker successfully defended her 22nd Judicial Seat with a strong showing (72%,) while Brian Trainor and Warren Montgomery will be headed into a runoff December 6th, 2014. The Louisiana Secretary of State (LSOS) website shows turnout to be slightly less than predicted at just under 50 percent. LSOS has Trainor finishing first with 40% and Montgomery second with 27%. Black and Burns finished 17% and 16%, respectively. The St. Tammany District Attorney Race has been colorful so far, and the next month will undoubtedly have even more surprises in store. When the race is finalized on December 6th, St. Tammany will have a new District Attorney for the first time in nearly 30 years.

Playmakers Presents "The Haunting Of Hill House"

Cut off from the outside world by its remote location and shunned by all who know its forbidding and sinister reputation, Hill House has remained empty and silent except for the daily visits of its grumbling caretaker, Mrs. Dudley. Its isolation is broken by the arrival of Dr. Montague, an investigator of supernatural phenomena who has been granted a short lease by the present owner. His mission is to delve into the morbid history of the house and to come to grips with the occult forces that have made it uninhabitable for many years.
